

Donald C. Paul

April 9, 2013

Paul, Donald Curtis of Cedar, MN. January 6, 1930-April 9, 2013. Avid outdoorsman and friend, U.S.A.F. Veteran, passed peacefully at home Tuesday afternoon. Survived by three children, Keith Paul of St. Paul, MN, Kenneth Paul of Lake City, MN, and Karen Walker of Lake City, MN; along with two grandchildren, Eric and Amy Walker of Lake City, MN. Don requested simple cremation with no memorial nor burial service. "We will ever hear your whisper off of every wing, your laughter from every brook, and feel your gaze upon us." Memorials to the Phillips Eye Institute and Allina Hospice Care.

Tribute Wall

JB

“ I had worked with Don for about 20 years and considered him a good friend. He had retired some time ago, but we stayed in touch and talked about 4 or 5 times a year. His interests were family, outdoors, politics, and of course his beloved pets. We always had something to talk about. I will miss Don. James Bugman, Rochester MN.

James Bugman - August 09, 2013 at 10:06 AM