

Donald Skoro

November 16, 2005

Skoro, Donald Keith Born September 25, 1924 in Duluth, MN, passed from this life on November 13, 2005. He was preceded in death by his loving wife of 51 years, Allie. He is survived by his five sons, Stephen (Jean Karlson), Martin (Roselyn Rezac), David, Peter and Robert (Molly McHale), and grandchildren, Robert, Elizabeth, Stephanie, Thomas, Allie, and John. Donald received one of the first Bachelor of Fine Arts degrees awarded by The Minneapolis School of Art (now Minneapolis College of Art and Design) in 1950. He taught drawing and painting at the Minneapolis School of Art and at San Jose State University (CA). Donald went on to become Art Director at two advertising agencies before leaving to work independently as a graphic designer producing communication graphics for a variety of corporate, educational, non-profit and government clients. He generously mentored many in the arts. Donald was a prolific painter whose love of nature, especially Lake Superior, is reflected in his many watercolors. His ship models will continue to delight in his absence. Our family would like to thank Presbyterian Homes in Spring Park for their wonderful care. Memorials to U of M Landscape Arboretum. Private interment at Fort Snelling National Cemetery. Mass of Christian Burial 10 AM Thursday, Nov. 17 at Church of the Good Shepherd, 145 Jersey Avenue S., Golden Valley, with reviewal 1/2 hour before Mass at church and Wednesday, 4-7 PM at: Washburn-McReavy Edina Chapel West 50th Street & Hwy 100 952-920-3996
