“ Aunt Bev, Michael, Diane, Leslie and Jeannie, my heart goes out to all of you at this sad time for you. I am so glad that my dad and I got a chance to visit Uncle Don when we were last up in the Cities together a year or so ago. We had a very nice visit and Uncle Don was so hospitable, as usual. I remember all of the good times on 16th Avenue South. Christmases (the turkey didn't get done that one year!), 4th of Julys and our getting to sit on the roof of the house to watch the fireworks at the Met Stadium, the fireworks themselves in the back yard. Those were the days. And we can never forget our trip to the Black Hills with the matching cute little campers. Your mom and dad took good care of my mom, too. Uncle Don, please go give Mom a hug and a kiss for me. Say hi to Grandma Louise and Grandpa Frank, too! You will be missed. Love you all, Debbie (Conway) Beuckens
