

Donna Mae Trebesch

September 22, 1943 - September 11, 2022

Donna Mae Trebesch was born on September 22, 1943 in Ashland, Wisconsin to Reuben and Hilda (Uutala) Warren. Donna was proud to have grown up on the farm. She graduated from Ashland high school in 1961 and went on to attend Concordia University and Valparaiso University where she directed musicals. She became a deaconess which led to a life long commitment to God that included being trained in Stephan's Ministries and serving on many of the boards at church including becoming the first female president of the congregation at Peace Lutheran Church in Robbinsdale and possibly the first in the LCMS.

Donna was married to Gary Trebesch on October 22, 1977 at Immanuel Lutheran church in North Minneapolis. They had two sons Jeremy and Michael. By 1980 they transferred to Peace Lutheran in Robbinsdale. In 1995 the family moved to Albertville, Mn.

Besides the work she did on the farm, her first job was at an ice cream parlore, admissions at a nursing home (which she hated because of having to take all the residents money) and many years at Ma Bell.

Donna loved visiting friends and relatives, going to musicals, decorating cakes (stay out of the kitchen), and most of all; spending time with her grandkids.

Donna is preceded in death by her parents Reuben and Hilda Warren, brother Leon Warren, daughter-in-law Desirée Trebesch and her loving husband of 43 years Gary Trebesch. She is survived by her sons Jeremy and Michael, grandchildren Ben, Tori, Connor, Devin, sister Yvonne (Jerry Clevette), brother

Don (Karen), sister-in-law Sue Warren and many loving nieces and nephews and cousins.

In lieu of flowers/gifts, donations preferred to the Alzheimer's Association.

“ Donna was a very active leader in the Lutheran Deaconess Conference when I first knew her. Many of us looked up to her and loved her. I remember going to her home for area deaconess meetings and loved hearing about her family. She is remembered by the deaconesses.
