“ I knew Doris through my sister, Joan Helland. She lived next door so I would see her quite often when I went to see my sister. We heard insightful words of encouragement when we visited. She had a loving heart you would experience the moment you entered her room (no exaggeration!). She was someone who had multiple medical problems and could have complained when we saw her. Instead she lifted us up with her words and smile! Yes, she's now healthy and whole, praising her Jesus! She will now experience the fullest life that God had planned for her since the beginning of time. Thank you, Jesus, that I was able to know Doris. Give her a big hug from me!

“ Doris was a beautiful woman; kind, loving, caring, compassionate and just plain wonderful! I truly loved her! I saw her on the Thursday before she died and we both agreed that she was going to a beautiful place, free of her pain and she would be home with her Savior, Jesus Christ! I know that I'll see her again in heaven and it'll be a beautiful time when we hug together once again.
