

Doris E. Barli

July 7, 2016

Barli, Doris E. Of Brooklyn Center, passed away of heart failure on July 7th, 2016. During her career of 30 years, Doris was a dedicated school secretary for the Mpls. school district, and an active charter member of Lutheran Church of the Master. She had a great love for nature, horticulture and travel. During her retirement years, she and her husband loved to travel the U.S. with their camper. Doris made family the focal point of her life. Preceded in death by parents Leo and Gladys, devoted husband Hank and son Steven, and sister June Wedman. Survived by sister Arlene Larkin of Florida, daughters Jerilyn Clarke and Janice Jensen, daughter-in-law Ginger Barli, sons-in-law Larry Clarke and Don Jensen, seven grandchildren, and eight great grandchildren. At this time, Doris requests no service but a celebration of her life at a later date. Washburn-McReavy.com Crystal Lake Chapel (612) 521-3677
