

Doris Barnard

June 23, 2014

Barnard, Doris (Schryver) age 99, of Plymouth, passed away June 23 after having lived a life defined by faith and family. She presided as the matriarch of her large, diverse and busy family serving as an inspiration for four generations of children. She is survived by her four daughters, Kay (Joe) Wilson-Clay, Deborah (Paul) Tsuchiya, Donna (Bruce) Husbands, Gwen (Al) Holm; 21 grandchildren, 33 great-grandchildren; and one great-great grandchild. Doris is preceded in death by her husband of 49 years, Charles Thomas; parents, Lloyd and Ethel Schryver; brother, Charles; and son-in-law, David Wilson. Doris lived her early years in Minneapolis and came of age in the Great Depression - which taught her to value both hard work and thrift. She married Charles Thomas Barnard in 1939 and they had four daughters. Doris exercised her belief in hard work by taking and keeping a full time job while managing an active family, home and volunteer work. Her career at the Star Tribune spanned two decades. She also led the Wayzata Livewires 4-H club for 10 years. Never one to slow down, Doris and Tom bought Moore Springs Resort in Akeley, MN for a retirement hobby - allowing them to continue to work long hours in the beauty of the Northwoods. When she truly retired, Doris enjoyed friends from several "Girl's Clubs", traveling and her growing group of grandchildren. Each grandchild and great-grandchild has a heart full of Grandma-wisdom and laughter to last a lifetime. She enriched every life with her great patience and loving acceptance. Visitation Thursday, June 26, from 6 - 8 PM at the Washburn-McReavy Werness Brothers Chapel.

Memorial service Friday, June 27, 1 PM at St. Nicholas Episcopal Church,

“ We have so many wonderful memories of the years Doris and Tom lived in Sturgeon Lake and attended St Andrews Episcopal Church in Moose Lake. They were great friends to have, and a wonderful addition to our neighborhood.

It was great that we were able to keep in touch after they moved away thanks to Gwen and the rest of you "girls".

She will be missed but now God has another angel.

Our deepest sympathy.
