

Doris Marie Christensen

June 13, 1926 - July 13, 2024

Doris Marie Forsberg Christensen was born on June 13, 1926 the daughter of William J. Forsberg and Alice Paulson Forsberg. She attended the Franklin Street Baptist Church and Hutchinson Public Schools, graduating in 1944. She worked as a bookkeeper. On May 26, 1946 she married George Christensen. Their 70 year marriage was blessed with three sons: Eugene, Ronald and James. They lived in Hutchinson, Sleepy Eye and Willmar before moving to the Twin Cities. In 1953 they bought their home in Bloomington where she has lived ever since. Doris was a homemaker while the children were young, working some part time and temporary jobs. Later she worked for the Dept. of Veterans Affairs and retired from there in 1990. She enjoyed reading, camping, traveling, computer games, Facebook, and time with family and friends. She was a member of Southtown Baptist Church. Doris was preceded in death by her husband George, her parents, brothers Donald and Bernard Forsberg, and sister Inez Settergren; also brothers and sisters-in-law Walter Settergren, Doris Nelson and husband Raymond, Arthur Christensen and wife Mildred, Ervin Christensen and wife Carole, Elizabeth Hoff and husband David and Patricia Forsberg. Doris is survived by her sons Eugene Christensen of Bloomington, Ronald Christensen and wife Sharon of Albuquerque, NM, and James Christensen and wife Cynthia of Bloomington; and her grandson Fletcher Christensen of Albuquerque, NM. She is also survived by her sister-in-law Stella Forsberg of Sacramento, CA and fourteen nieces and nephews together with their families.
