“ I shall always remember Doris coming through the office or church door, seeing me and greeting me as I asked "How are you doing?" with her wonderful saying of "Fine, now that I see you!" God bless her for brightening up so many of our lives with that greeting. She was a fine, gentle, quiet lady whom I enjoyed working with when she volunteered to do senior activities for the Folwell Neighborhood Association. She always was willing in the earlier years to volunteer for community activities....serving food for the Halloween volunteers at Folwell Park, helping clean up at senior luncheons, offering assistance at the Ice Cream Socials. She was in my prayers these last many months and now can rest in peace. Prayers and condolences go to the family at this sad time. Celebrate her life with happiness.
