

Dorleen Rae Hagerman

October 30, 1934 - October 13, 2023

Of Roseville, MN. Passed peacefully October 13, 2023 at home.

Preceded in death by husband, Richard (Dick) A. Hagerman; parents, Daniel Grant Clemmons II, and Florence Clemmons and brother, Daniel Grant Clemmons III.

Dorleen is survived by 3 sons, Steven R. Hagerman (Mary), Jeffrey S. Hagerman (Monica) and Douglas A. Hagerman ( Mary). Grandchildren, Jennifer Kroells (Kaleb) and Grant Hagerman; great granddaughter, Sadie Kroells. In addition to many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends .

Dorleen graduated from Murray High School, spending the majority of her life in St. Paul and Roseville. She was active in her church, Como Park Lutheran Church for over 70 years. Dorleen and Richard were married on December 26, 1953 at Como Park Lutheran Church , and built their home in Roseville where they lived and raised their family. Dorleen was able to remain at home until death. She worked for a period of time at Midwest Marine and then later as the family grew, dedicated her time to raising and taking care of her three sons. She was always conscious of keeping track of family and friends' important dates, anniversaries, birthdays, and reaching out to let them know she was thinking of them.

She will be missed but is with Dad and we will see her again.

Funeral Service 11 AM Thursday, October 26 (visitation 10-11AM) at Como Park Lutheran Church, Hoyt and Sheldon Aves., St. Paul. Livestreaming of service at: <https://youtube.com/live/AqglD6fJNc>

Interment Roselawn Cemetery, Roseville, MN.

Memorials preferred to Como Park Lutheran Church.

Tribute Wall

“ Washburn-McReavy Funeral Chapels created a Tribute Video in memory of Dorleen Rae Hagerman

December 14, 2023 at 06:24 PM

“ To: Doug Hagerman & Family,
We wish you comfort in the loving memories of your mother and the support of friends and family.

Rob & Julie Solfest - October 24, 2023 at 12:00 AM