“ Another day that I just had to go down memory lane and note the timeline of how we lost you and Dad.... From Dad being hospitalized in 2009, to your final breath around 7:25pm on August 16, 2014... We could all see the decline and were so worried and so helpless. I hope now understand all of our concerns and when you left, you knew I loved you, with all my heart... I just miss you, plain and simple...

“ Went out to Fort Snelling yesterday.... I am sure you know Mom, but I just wanted to confirm that there were no mistakes on your headstone... I missed you so much this Christmas, but I made sure to give a little extra to the kids, from you and Dad. Nancy & Duane hosted our family dinner and got us all another keepsake tree ornament. I bought us sisters, pearl necklaces, your birthstone. Please stay near me, I am not adjusting well to my life without you... All my Love, Always...

“ Mom & us girls have such beautiful memories of Dorothy (and Andy) through the years growing up. The laughter and fun we shared both at church and in our own living room ! She was a very loving and special lady and will be missed. I know she is safe with Jesus now and in the arms of her beloved Andy, but a empty spot will always be here and though we know she is pain free now, her family and friends will need time to mend. God bless and be close to all of you.
