Dorothy Evelyn (Ballard) Isaacson

Isaacson, Dorothy Evelyn (Ballard) Joined her husband, Jalmer at their Heavenly Home on 12/20/16. Dorothy was born in Wabasso, MN on March 13, 1921. Graduated from Delhi High School and came to Minneapolis in 1940 where she worked as a civilian employee at Ft Snelling during WWII. There she met and married Jalmer Isaacson. After the war they started a variety store in S. Minneapolis and later Isaacson's Of Spring Lake Park that continued for 33 years. After retirement they enjoyed several trips to New Zealand. Dorothy had a very strong Faith in Jesus Christ and was a member of Aldrich Presbyterian Church and Grace Evangelical Free Church. She always carried a smile on her face, which the wonderful staff at The Heartwood of Crosby so enjoyed. Preceded in death by her parents Roger and Evelyn Ballard, siblings Irvin, Bart, Clara, Harriet and Lantha. Survived by: son, Bruce (Michelle) Isaacson, daughter, Myra Isaacson, granddaughter Amanda (Mike) Pesko, great grandchildren Emma Sutton and Trace Pesko. She is also survived by brother in-laws Jim Isaacson and Willard Maki and many nieces and nephews. Funeral service will be held at a later date at Washburn-McReavy Coon Rapids Chapel. Private burial at Fort Snelling National Cemetery. Notice to follow. Washburn-McReavy.com Coon Rapids Chapel 763-767-1000
