“ Hi Mom, Just wanted to send you a note. I've been thinking alot about you and Dad lately. Wishing you were here to share the joys of Haylee. She is such a beautiful little girl. She is just starting to laugh now it is so cute. The days are getting warm now. Sorry we haven't been to the grave much yet... We don't get to the cities much. I want to plan a yellow rose bush for you, I just need to find a place in my yard to do it. I might do it when Haylee gets a little bigger then she can help me, Plant it in your honor. Haylee weights 14 pounds now. Candi is back in school. We had to help her abit with that, But it will be worth it. Hopefully she will make lots of money for her and Haylee. I love you Mom
