

Dorrine Anderson-Turecamo

December 27, 2016

Anderson-Turecamo, Dorrine 6/22/1930 12/27/2016 Dorrine passed away suddenly and peacefully. She was raised in the Robbinsdale, MN area. Preceded in death by her parents, Ted and Signe Olson, and her sister Shari. She is survived by another sister, Carolyn. In 1948 Dorrine married Richard Anderson, and they raised two sons, Randy and Ted. She loved her family life, and enjoyed cooking and sewing. During this period she also followed her passions and developed communication skills, working as a radio personality, a personal development teacher, and a promotional consultant. She later moved to Manhattan, N.Y., and married Charles Turecamo, a well-known orchestra leader. They lived there for eleven years, and she developed and pursued her writing career. She had numerous magazine articles published, and worked as an editor for a N.Y. publisher. Dorrine and Charles then returned to live in Edina, and she taught a college class in writing and getting published. She continued writing articles for magazines and business publications, often focusing on personal development, communication, and effective business management. She will be remembered for her love of her sons, her 5 grandchildren and her three great-grandchildren, her nieces and nephews, and her ongoing encouragement to them and her many students to follow their dreams. A visitation-gathering will be held on Jan. 17 at 10:00 am and a memorial service at 11:00, at Mount Olivet Lutheran Church. Washburn-McReavy.com Edina Chapel 952-920-3996
