“ Hey Dad, its me...I miss you. It was only a couple of years ago on Christmas morning you were reading T'was the Night Before Christmas to Lisa, me and the kids. It brought tears to everyone's eyes, including Mom. We all looked up to you so much. Keep watching over us Dad - give Lisa and Tessa a hug for me. I love you.-r

“ Hey Grandpa, things around Christmas just aren't the same without your twinkling eyes and big smile... remember the Christmas you came to my parent's house and you and Grandma took turns reading to us and we all heard the jingle bells? I miss you so much... I miss Grandma too, she just isn't her anymore... I wish we could just go back to Christmas 10 years ago when we all were together and a family... we won't even all be together this year... I miss you so much...

“ I miss you Dad... The last couple of weeks things have come up and my first thought was to talk to you, and I can't, at least not the way I want to... I could always read your face to help me understand the advice you gave me, it was a comfort that I never realized how much I would miss. I love you Dad...

“ Louise, Ken, Ron and Phil: I know this loss was a hard one. I've even had a hard time believing it's true. Ron, You are a very strong person. Last year you lost your wife and daughter two weeks before your birthday. This year you lost your father two weeks after your birthday. You have endured so much in the last 13 months. Just know that God has a plan for you. You must keep strong in order to fulfill it. Love, Your Cousin

“ I guess I'll try again! My first entry wasn't posted! To all of Duffy's family: My thoughts and prayers are with you. May God bless your memories of Duffy and your lives together in many ways. I enjoyed seeing Duffy whenever the occasion presented itself: at many family occasions when I was with Ramona & her family. Since I'm now in California, I couldn't be at the funeral but my thoughts were with you.

“ Louise, I'm so sorry for your loss. Duffy was a fun, loving man. I can still remember the joy he brought to the pancake breakfasts with the cub scouts and also providing his clown act at my graduation party in 1984. His fun spirit will be greatly missed.

“ I was 13 or 14 and Duffy would chase me around the roller rink at the Lakeside Pavilion in Glenwood MN, pulling my hair and teasing me with "Better be nice to me. I'm going to be your brother-in-law someday." I didn't know him very well and would get so mad when he did that! I would tell Louise and she'd just smile and say... "Maybe he will". Whoever would have guessed they would be together 60 years, and Duffy was so good to her! Thanks, Duffy, for giving my sister such a good life. You were a good husband, a good friend and a good Dad and Grandpa - and, yes, a good brother-in-law. I'll miss you, kiddo! But I'm so happy you are now at peace.

“ What do you call a man that always had a word of encouragement, a pinch of discipline, a not too funny joke, and a smile? I call him Uncle. And how lucky I was to have him as mine. I will miss you Uncle Duffy, as will Breanna and Tre'. We love you very much and we thank God for the gift of you in our lives. We praise God for the love you showed us and the wisdom you imparted. We will miss you, but are comforted by God's promise of eternal life, knowing that we will see you again. For now, rest in the comfort of the Father's arms. You deserve that rest.

“Duffy - Wish I would have come to see you in recent years. I thought about you lots and always enjoyed the emails I got about you, the kids, and the grandkids when I was overseas. They made me feel so much closer to you both. Ever since I was little, I always thought you had the kindest eyes I've ever looked upon. I hope you know what a wonderful cousin I thought you were, and what a great father I think you must have been. (because you sure have some nice kids!) I love you! Hope you get to meet with my grandparents and Lisa and Tessa now! May God bless your soul and give you comfort.

“ I was only 5 years old when Duffy and Louise got married. I didn't know about "in-laws", he was simply my brother. He was smart, funny, and very loving. When Duffy and Louise came down to visit us, my grandchildren thought his name was "Uncle Ducky". They'd never heard of a person called Duffy. We laughed and laughed over that. I'll miss him.

A good part of who I am is because of you. I love you Dad.*
