“ Sad to read of Doug's passing, condolences to the family. Margaret and Doug were warm and gracious hosts, solid and down-to-earth, hard to imagine one without the other. Doug served in Korea, and I was one who encouraged him to display his Purple Heart with pride. I got a lot of tips early on from Doug about honesty and the art of salesmanship. Pirjo and I have not been stateside for 12 years, so this comes late, but is all the more sincere. Pirjo and John Koivukangas

“ Carolyn, Susan, Maria and families, I was saddened to hear about Doug's passing. Your memories of him will live forever in your hearts. I will always remember Margaret and Doug's delight when I would on the spur of the moment decide to drop by to visit with them.

“ I first met, Margaret and Doug in 1952 when I returned home from Korea. Barbara was a cousin to Margaret and was a bridesmaid in their wedding. Both Margaret and Doug were in our wedding in 1955. We were blessed with over 60 years of their companionship. Wishing many condolences to the family!

“ There was no finer gentleman than Doug...and, no one more beautiful than my 1st cousin Margaret. I had the great opportunity, on occasion, to meet with them and reminisce of the early days. Their wonderful family, along with all of us relatives and friends, will miss them...and the loving example they set. Rest in Peace.

“ He and Margaret will be dearly missed. We enjoyed visiting them when they lived here in Buffalo. I remember fondly one evening visit when they taught us the song that she wrote and we sang with Doug and Margaret and our children:

SHZ 446

1. The Lord has given us His Word / that we may learn of Him. / A precious book He gave to say / we may be free from sin.

2. The Spirit makes this Word alive, / it preaches of the blood; / through Jesus' suff'ring on the cross / we're reconciled to God.

3. His kingdom walks upon this earth / and here His grace is found; / a sinner here may cleanse his way / where God's free gifts abound.

4. The Bible says the saints of God / have always walked this way. / Oh, let us follow in their steps / and rest with them one day.

5. Oh, keep me in this kingdom, Lord, / and let me not grow faint, / but lead my way to heaven's home, / to You, and all the saints.
