“ Dearest Mary, We were so sad to hear of Doug's passing. One of our fondest memories was meeting you folks on our way to St. Louis for the GOF. Traveling together was a time to get to know you and Doug better. Doug was a good man. He will be missed.

“ Doug was my neighbor. I've known him since my family moved three houses down the street from him and his family in 1987. I remember in 1996 my family and I were taking our new dog Lucy out for a walk. Doug was out mowing his front lawn and we stopped to introduce him to Lucy as our new furry family member. What makes this memory stand out to me is how Doug told us that if he ever had a dog, he would name it “Damnit.” That way whenever he needed to call for the dog he could say, “ come here damnit!” We all had a good laugh at that. This memory and a little bit of Doug's sense of humor will always be a part of me and I feel like that keeps a piece of Doug alive in this world.

“ Some of my first memories of Doug were going to visit Doug and Mary in Rockford. I was the only kid back in those days (before the girls and my brother came along). I never felt left out. Doug would always play with me and had Peanuts (Snoopy) toys to play with. I enjoyed the fact that he always had a goofy nickname for me and called Mary-Ralph! God bless you Doug, may you be at rest and enjoy joking around in heaven with my mom! -Beth (Perras) Bodenburg
