

Douglas Eugene Remme

November 30, 1952 - April 9, 2020

Douglas Eugene Remme died on 4-9-2020 and was laid to rest on 9-1-2021 after a bravely fought 6 year battle with cancer. Doug was born to Dale & Beverly Remme on November 30, 1952. He was raised in Bloomington and was the oldest of 5 boys. He married his high school sweetheart (Sue) on July 18, 1970. They welcomed two children, Jason & Stephanie. He was an avid hunter of waterfowl & Deer. They had a place at Bradleys Resort on Farm Island Lake where they met their second "Family" with a bond that lasted a lifetime. He spent countless hours on the lake fishing & enjoyed the nightly campfires. On July 18,2003 (their 33 anniversary) They purchased a cabin on the Lake which was always their dream. Many wonderful memories were made there. He worked for the Nott Company/Hyster Division for 28 years and finished his career in the material handling business. He retired from Minnesota supply in April 2019. He was a proud Papa to 3 Granddaughters attending their school and sporting events. He always gave his full support for every accomplishment that the girls did. He was always the life of the party, and we will miss his contagious laugh. Survived by his wife Susan, son Jason and daughter Stephanie Raskin. Granddaughters Alexis (A.J.), Brooke & Cortney Raskin. Brothers Curt (Vicki), Jeff (Debra), Dean, Jon (Lisa). Mother-in-law Doris Gulbrandson. Sister-in-laws Karen Hagen, Nancy (Tom) Gatz. Lifelong friends Tom Doty and Bob Fritz. Many nieces & Nephews. A memorial service will be held in his honor on 2/22/24 at 1pm with a visitation for 1 hour prior at Washburn-McReavy Bloomington Chapel. An evening visitation will also be held on 2/21/24 from 4-7pm. Graveside service immediately following at Bloomington Cemetery, 10340 Lyndale Ave S, with a celebration of life luncheon at Evert McClay VFW post 1296-311 W. 84th St. Blmgt. We would love for you to share a story/memory at the service and/or luncheon.
