

Douglas Cedric Taylor

December 7, 1914 - March 13, 2011

Father, Grandpa Great Grandpa & Friend Age 96 of St. Paul passed away March 13, 2011. Preceded in death by wife, Roberta; infant child, Joy Ann; parents, Henry & Ethel; brother, Theodore. Survived by sister, Annette Mangan; daughter, Jenny (Jim) Peterson; son, Scott (Nancy); grandchildren, Jennifer (Greg) Logue, Janell (Jason) Lytle; Brian and Kimberly (Behzad) Taylor; great-grandchildren, Morgan, Raegan, Robyn & Tessa Logue, Connor & Ryan Lytle; many nieces, nephews and friends. Doug worked for Ford Motor Co. during WWII, and then retired from St. Paul Linoleum and Carpet. He was active with the Boy Scouts and loved square dancing. Visitation Friday 4-7 PM at HOLCOMB-HENRY-BOOM-PURCELL FUNERAL HOME, 536 Snelling Ave, St. Paul. Funeral Service Saturday 10:30 AM (visitation 9:30AM) at MACALESTER PLYMOUTH UNITED CHURCH, 1685 Lincoln Ave, St. Paul. Interment Roselawn Cemetery. In lieu of flowers memorials preferred to the church or Boys Scouts of America.

Tribute Wall

GL

“ Our prayers are with all who are missing their father, grandfather, great-grandfather, family member, neighbor and friend. Though he will be missed, I feel joy for my grandfather in that he feels no more pain and is now reunited with his wife in a wonderful place.

Greg & Jennifer Logue - March 18, 2011 at 12:00 AM