“ Duane, It was one year ago today that your life ended abruptly. I can't shake my grief. My heart is heavy and the tears are flowing often. I am just so sad and miss you so much dear brother. I thank God for having you in my life. For all of the laughter and love. You brightened the lives of so many. We are all learning to live with a hole in our hearts but know that one day we will see you again.

“ Today is March 26, 2009 and I had a visitor with very sad news about Duane. A few years back he painted the whole inside of my home. Danny and him were working together at the time. What a joy it was to have them around, always laughing about something. A couple times he would bring Sloan over, she was everything to him, he loved her some much! He talked about how Hally and Sloan were going to be a family. I will miss that great personality and smile of his.

I miss you so much. I hung out with Hally and your buddies the other night and boy did we have a good time. Oh relax Duane!! It was all innocent and in good fun. On my way home that night I had a melt down. I think just being around your friends and talking about you made it really difficult to realize your passing. I know you are watching over me and the boys and we feel you around us all the time. God I miss you and love you with all my heart. I know you know that. Kisses and Hugs xoxoxox

“ To all of you who are taking the time to remember Duane by reading and contributing to this guest book...We apologize, but as we have gathered together tonight, on the night before his memorial, and are putting together picture boards and reminiscing about each of our memories, we felt pulled to write one last time to Duane!Dearest Duane, As this guest book has shared with the world..."It takes a village to raise a child."Someone else wrote that they did not realize you had so much family...though your passing has created a void in so many of our lives, you can take comfort from heaven in knowing how many people are here to support and love Sloan. She will never be at a loss for family and she will always know her Saba side as well.We all love you, we all will miss you and as you finally have found peace in Heaven, we all are laughing and rejoicing with you!Continued peace on your journey!All of our love, Us

“ Hally & Sloan, Roy and I will always be here for you, both. Duane knew he could always count on us. We already miss him far more than I ever knew could be possible. Just as his personality was bigger than life, his absence leaves an enormous space in our lives. There isn't a room in our home that wasn't touched by his talent and skill. Although we knew Duane before Hally and Sloan, he didn't really share his life with us until that little Angel SLOAN lit up his life. Danny & Daryl, No matter where you were or what was going on, Duane always acted like he was the BIG brother and could take care of everything. We believed it. Don't forget you have each other, and many others to lean on. Duane, Our lives will never be the same. This spring when I start my garden Sloan can help me build a "Peace" garden for you. Rest in Peace my friend. Love You, Miss You, bye

I felt like a little girl again, hugging my big brother. I always looked up to you and felt so lucky to have a brother who was so handsome, funny, talented and gave great hugs. When you hugged me and called me "sis" I always felt so special. I know you are watching over all of your friends and family today and realize now how much we all love you. Give grandpa a hug for me. “ Dewy there is know way I could tell you how much you have and will always mean to me in my life. From the age of 16 we have shared our lives together as best freinds. Even though we both moved forward with our lives. we always stayed connected and the best of freinds. Myself you and tom had a bond that this world or the next can not break. We even shared poor spelling and bad grammer. so I will put these in there case I missed any ? / ; : " ' we graduated from hopkins go figure. My children weeped when they heard the news as I did when I found you. chris and camille loved having you over and will miss all the crap and the teasing you would give them. They love you and sloan very much. I will try and share with sloan everything about you that I know to be true. Like the love you had for her mother your family and your friends. How much you enjoyed fishing up at steve's and your passion for golfing. I will even tell her you where good at it..... lets face it dew there will be some things she will never need to know. But most important how much she ment to you. I enjoyed watching you dote over her. You were a great dad. one of the best. I new you got ticked off sometimes that I would call you everyday. But I would see you get upset when I missed a couple days too. Words could never say how much I will miss you my friend. I will try my best to be there for hally and sloan. Even though im writting this note to you with a shatterd heart. It will heal. I forgive you. I love you and I will miss you. love chuck

“ The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of the righteousness for His name sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thy rod and Thy staff art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies : Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

“ Mom Saba - I feel soooo sad this week, I just cannot stop crying. I cannot imagine the pain you must feel, raising Duane from the time he was 3 years old and for 13 years..he was a son to you and dad. Feel comforted knowing you did the best you could to give him a normal life! Even though we didn't have much money we always had fun. I remember all the hugs and kisses you gave Duane. You loved him so much as we all do, and I just want to say, "THANK YOU" for everything mom...as Jesus would say..."Well done my child!" From all the school, church, and social activities, you gave him the best you could and I'm sure Duane is smiling down on you with appreciation. He was a happy child with a grin from ear to ear, and cuter than a bug's ear. He could always get his way just by smiling with his eyes twinkling and that devilish look on his face! Duane, you were quite a character with a dazzling personality that melted our hearts. Mom, my prayers are with you...at 82 years old I'm sure this kind of stress is not good for your heart, so take it easy knowing your children are praying for you, and we love you very very much. "Call upon the name of Jesus, and HE will give you rest!" "I am the resurrection and the LIFE, he who BELIEVES in me and dies, yet shall he live."

“ Sloan And Hallyl know that Duane loved you both so very much and would want nothing more then for the two of you to be taken care of and watched over, to make sure that you both live a happy and fun filled life. I also know that he will be watching over you both with a full heart everyday. Being able to watch his Little girl grow older and into a woman. I know that duane would want that and for Sloan to be taken care of. Sloan we know that you will miss your dad, we all will miss your dad. Duane was a great person and a even greater father, watching sloan playing with him and even more fun watching her on the phone with him brought warm feelings to all of our hearts. Sloan i just want you to know that we are here for you, as a family with care and love for you. We will be here to watch over you just as your father will do from heaven. “ Duane, Somehow I can't help but to write in your guestbook once again. To think that we shall not speak again until I reach heaven, is unthinkable. To think I will never feel your strong arms around me, breaks my heart. Growing up with you and Ward was so much fun. I was considerably older, but I loved and adored every minute of having you in our household and part of my life as a brother. Jon, Alex and Rachel loved you very much as well. On Saturday we will meet to say our official goodbye's, but there will never be a goodbye for me. You will always live on in my heart, in my memories, in my daily thoughts and my prayers. I know that "For God So Loved the World that He Gave His Only Begotten Son, that WHOSOEVER Believeth in Him, Shall NOT Perish, but have ETERNAL LIFE! I know, Dear Duane, that you believed in Him and are in heaven without any sorrows, only glories. As dad use to play on his harmonica and we'd sing: You are My Sunshine, My Only Sunshine, You make me Happy when skies are gray. You'll never know dear, how much I loved you... Please don't take my sunshine away. The other night dear, as I lay sleeping, I dreamed I held you in my arms, When I awoke dear, I was mistaken, so I hung my head and I cried. With love forever, Your big sis... Cindy

“ I spent a lot of time with you when we were kids. Seemed like Grandma and Grandpa were always babysitting me! We used to play tag and kickball in their backyard or alley (I thought that was so cool that they had an alley!) Christmas time we would sit around Grandpa while he was playing the harmonica. We always tried to see who could sing the loudest (it wasn't pretty!) I will forever be grateful for the time that I had to go to California on business. You picked me up from the airport and took me to Hollywood so I could see what it was really like...not so glamorous! I will cherish those memories and photos forever! Now you are with Grandpa. I am sure he is so happy to see you. Make sure he knows how much he is still missed. My son, Braydon, cries for him to this day. Take care of each other up there, Duane and please know how much you were loved and how deeply you will be missed. Hally and Sloan...keep his memories alive and never forget how much he loved you! Love you cuz!

“ Uncle Dewer, I'm having a very hard time trying to deal with you being gone. You were the unc, that always understood who i am. we understood eachother. When i found out my heart sank so deep that i couldnt breathe. We were so close. we understood eachother. Your hugs will never be forgotten you always gave the best hugs. Your smile was was always so touching. I tried being serious around you and i just couldnt help but laugh when you smiled. Sloans smile is identical to yours, Every time i look at her all i see is you. And its going to be hard looking into those eyes and not crying. I just miss you so much. I know you will be in our hearts. You were everything to me. May you rest now that the pain is gone. but just know how many people love you and care for you. And know that i'm HERE for Sloan. And always will be. As you know i've been there for Sloan and always will be. The other night her and Adriana had a blast together and as you know sloany named her baby Adriana. I will be there for her through thick and thin. A Poem for You...You left one starry night. Without any warning in sight. I never was given the chance to say good-bye. It seemed our time just flew right by. I know the angels were calling your name. Without you here, life will never be the same. You meant the world to me and there are things I will never know. You were an uncle with an everlasting glow. You were so full of life and happiness. You were the one who took away my sadness. You always had faith in me. And you were always excited to see me succeed. Your body is no longer with us. However your spirit still lives. I take comfort knowing you are my angel. Duane I love you with the bottom of my heart just know that. I will be with you forever and for always. Rest in Peace Angel.

“ To my friend Duane, I will always remember your great sense of humor. You could always make me laugh. I will always remember you for your creativity and ingenuity, especially your magic tricks. A few months back, we had a phone conversation and you called me your friend and told me I was a stand up guy. It meant a lot to me. I will miss you, as I know many others will. You will always live on in your daughter, and in the hearts of your many friends and family.

“ VALENTINES DAY 2008 AT CULVERS RESTAURANT IN MOUND MINNESOTA ABOUT MID DAY I SAT AT A TABLE STARING OUT THE WINDOW WITH NOTHING TO SAY. I DID NOT NOTICE AT FIRST GLANCE THE MAN STANDING OUTSIDE WAVING HIS HANDS. YOU CAME TO MY TABLE ONE HAND BEHIND YOUR BACK. THE WORDS FROM YOU, THAT CAME FROM YOUR MOUTH, THE SMILE ON YOUR FACE JUST WARMED MY HEART.(WOULD YOU BE MY VALENTINE AND A CANDY BAR YOU GAVE) I SMILED WITH A TEAR IN MY EYE, THANK YOU BROTHER, YOU MADE MY DAY~! DEAR DUANE, NO MATTER HOW FAR AWAY YOU ARE YOU WILL ALWAYS BE IN MY HEART. LOVE FOREVER, YOUR SISTER-IN-LAW DEBBIE

“ If your reading this, I know you wish, you had just one more day to take your time and speak your mind, and say what you never say. If your reading this, I know you wish, you had just one more hour to share in bliss, blow a kiss, and hold him with all your power. If your reading this, its my wish, that you reach down deep inside, and get on the phone, and say hello to those, before Gods call is the first in line. by: Sarah Saba

“ Duane, Our families have known each other since we were little kids, playing ditch, skating and sliding at windom park. Vacations on little toad lake. Alot of great memories. We even ran into each other on a flight to mexico, that was a shocker. I know well bump into each other again someday. Bless you and your family.

“ Sloan, your Daddy loved you very much. He always said you were the best thing that ever happened in his life. Each time I would see him he would tell me how wonderful his little girl is and pull out his newest photos of you. He was very proud of you. If he wasn't telling people about you he was doing a magic trick; he always did like to make people smile. Your Dad now sits with God and his angels, together they will forever watch over you and your Mother. He loved you both so very much. I will miss him dearly.

“ Dear Dewer, You are my little brother that I looked up to like a big brother. I can't believe you are gone forever. I'm absolutely stunned and wish that I could see you again. I will forever cherish the memories and experiences that we shared together. You will be dearly missed by many friends, family and myself. I know that life can be difficult and you had your struggles. I'm so sorry that you are gone. I hope that you are in a better place now and that you are at peace. All I have now is memories of you and I hope that someday we will meet again in Heaven. I promise to be there for Sloan whenever she needs me too. I know that you are gone but will never be forgotten. I love you my brother with all my heart and always will. Even though you are gone, I can't say goodbye. My life will always have an empty spot in it without you because you mean so much to me as a brother. Rest in peace my bro. Love Always, Danny “ Okay Dewey, You asked for it. You didn't realize you would be the first person with a 5,000 page guestbook! LOL. My tearducts are drained. I will have to drink more water to shed more tears. If you were here to read this, you would definitely understand this next line... I am so SNORRY that this happened! You see (to all reading this) when Duane got mad at someone, yet had to apologize, he would get that cute little Duane grin on his face and say through gritted teeth "I'm SNORRY." (SOUNDING LIKE "SORRY." How could such a brat be so loveable? How could I call him a brat right now you ask? Please look at it as an endearment. I could say a million things and eventually might type it all right here, but meanwhile, take a look at these gorgeous pictures. I believe his darling daughter Sloan was 5 in this solo picture (not sure) and she is now 6. She was probably 2(?) in the picture of her and daddy. With Love and a little sassiness for his Sister/Aunt Cindy.

“ Duane, one thing I was told was to write you a letter of things I wanted to say to you. The second thing I was told was to make a memorial by planting a tree, or having dinner on your birthday every year in your memory. This helps with the grieving process. Duane...I always loved you...or should I call you Dewey...your smile could light up the room! God blessed you even though you may not have realized it. You may not have ever felt loved, but so many are emotionally in pain because of their love for you and the loss we are experiencing. Mom had you confirmed in the church and we know you knew God, so my prayers are for HIS mercy upon your soul. Danny and Darryl...Sherrie and Monica, I'm so sorry for your loss! Please know we are all praying for the whole family for the comfort only God can give. I love you all. Sloan, dear sweet girl, remember your daddy and know how much he loved you. Make him proud sweetie. Mom (Grandma Saba) - KNOW you did the best job raising Duane! Duane - You will be missed! When you see Grandpa John in heaven...have him play a tune for you on his harmonica...Feel the peace of the Holy Spirit. Always know we love you, and you will be missed terribly.

“ Duane You were my younger brother and we had alot of good times growing up. I will always remember going up to windom park to go ice skating and play hockey and I will never forget when your nose was broken by a flying hockey puck, or how when you broke your arm and had a cast you would always tell everyone in the neighborhood you would hit them with it if you did not get your way. I also liked when we could walk to school together,all the christmas mornings we would get up early hoping to catch santa we never did. And the easter mornings that mom would hide our Easter baskets and you would always find mine first and tell me where it was. Thank God mom and dad made our child hood a very memorable one. God bless you brother you will always be in my thoughts and prayers, I will never forget you, tell dad Hi from me up in heaven. Remember mom and dad Loved you very much.

“ My heart, sympathy and prayers go out to all of Duane’s family and friends. I have many wonderful memories of Duane when he lived with me and my ex-husband. He was always willing to lend a helping hand and he knew how to make me smile. Tears have been cried that pour like the rain, I know that you are happy now and longer in any pain. Hey, Duane, say hi to my daddy-o up there will ya! “If we could bring you back again, For one more hour or day, We’d express all our unspoken love; We’d have countless things to say. If we could bring you back again, we’d say we treasured you, And that your presence in our lives Meant more than you ever knew. If we could bring you back again, To tell you what we should, You’d know how much we miss you, And if we could, we would. “
