“ Duane's Mom was my Dad's big sister. I have fond memories of Christmas Eve in Sherburn when we were little kids, with Duane singing Silent Night as I played the piano. We have had such fun over the years laughing at family memories. Because of Duane, my daughter has never had a cavity. I will always be grateful for the love and compassion Duane and Charlotte have had for me over the years, and I shall miss my only cousin. Condolences to Charlotte, Laurie and Mark during this sad time.
