

Earl A Fredrickson

August 5, 2017

Fredrickson, Earl A. Christ-follower, encourager and friend passed away into the presence of God at age 84 on August 5, 2017. Preceded in death by his parents George and Signe (nee Johnson) Fredrickson; wife, Arlene (nee Freedholm) Fredrickson; and son, James Robert. He was a wonderful husband, father, grandfather, soon-to-be great-grandfather and friend. He took joy in using his gifts to connect people to each other, and to Wooddale Church where he was a member for more than 45 years. More than anything, his deepest desire was for people to know and have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. He is survived by wife Ruthie (nee Ray) Fredrickson; sons Jon (Jill) Fredrickson and Mark (Deb) Fredrickson; daughter Susan (Peter) Zeller; grandchildren Jessica (Aleks) Knezevich, David (Jamie) Fredrickson, Ellie Zeller, Mitchell Fredrickson, Daniel Zeller, Joe Fredrickson, James Zeller, Nate Fredrickson, Bonnie Zeller, and Alaina Fredrickson; and brother Paul (Janet) Fredrickson. Funeral service Wednesday, August 16 11 AM at Wooddale Church, 6630 Shady Oak Road, Eden Prairie. Visitation Tuesday, August 15 5-7 PM at Washburn-McReavy, 7625 Mitchell Road, Eden Prairie (1 block north of hwy 5) and also one hour prior to the service. Memorials preferred to Forever Friends or Wooddale Church. Washburn-McReavy.com Eden Prairie Chapel 952-975-0400

Tribute Wall

“ From the time I was a young girl, I have pleasant memories of Earl and Arlene in Austin, Mn. They were a delightful couple and we often went to their house, first because our family was friends with them, and later when we gathered as teens for singspirations after evening church. Earl always had a smile on his face and kidded us good-naturedly. He modeled for me a joy-filled Christian life.

Sherrie Porterfield - August 13, 2017 at 12:17 PM