“ Great memories of Uncle Earl...family reunions and volleyball games, having to share my chocolate cake, borrowing a clarinet for band, always interested in what my kids were doing, Andy getting him set up on a computer and learning it!!! My love to Lois, Leonard, Lawrence, Jackie and all.

“ Uncle Earl was a "colorful character" like most of his brothers and sisters. I always enjoyed seeing him at family get togethers.

“ My oldest memory of Earl...as most of you know was the "whoopsie pants" when I was very young. Earl was self confident, humorous and unmistakably a "Witz". My fondest memory, most do not know...And that was when he took me in when my parents were out of town and I was "ill". There were never any lectures, no admonishments...just a caring uncle. Uncle Earl will most certainly be missed...but his impact on me lives on. My most sincere sympathies to his wife, boys, and granddaughter.
