“ Aunt Ebba I met at the Red Lake County farm; at Wall St. N., Moorhead, MN; at lake home, Hawley, MN; six weddings and funerals at Trinity Lutheran Church, Moorhead, MN; at Hyland Park lake home, Mpls; and Normandale Ave. S., Mpls. apartment multiple times. She encouraged me to let things keep me 'hopping', and to find and take a wife, as time would get around to it. If possible, I would like to apologize to the family for my errant mental illness, due to not doing what I hear should be done from Sunday church services in my mid-life years. “ I first met Ebba when her son Eron came down from the north woods to terrorize the cities of Richfield and Bloomington. We became life long friends and the age of 18. Ebba's house was the meeting place. Above all else she was understanding and tolerant. I can still remember some of her favorite quips, like, "Mr. Keyes don't you have a home", or "Mr. Keyes what kind of trouble are you going to get Eron into tonight?" Like she actually believed Eron wasn't the ringleader. I'll always remember Ebba when I think of Eron, which is very often.

“ I just heard of Ebba's passing. She was my aunt (Robert was my Dad's brother - Edward Kral). She was always so full of life and had a little spunk to her. She was always so fun to talk to. I will not be able to make it to the funeral but my thoughts are with the family and I will say a special prayer for her. Margie (Kral) Kirchhoff
