

Edith "Edie" Ingraham

May 19, 2014

Edith "Edie" Ingraham, age 95, passed away on May 19, 2014 in Minneapolis, MN.

Edie was born on December 28, 1918 in Oak Park, IL to Robert and Danita Poor. She was raised in the Chicago area, studied fashion design and worked as a dance instructor. She met and married her husband, Garland "Gar" Ingraham in 1949. Upon Gar's retirement in 1980, they relocated full time to their home in Mt. Crested Butte, CO.

Edie loved her family and friends, and enjoyed painting watercolors, needlepointing, and mountain walks in search of wildflowers or mushrooms. Edie was a member of the Union Congregational Church of Crested Butte.

She is survived by two sons, Gil (Lin) Ingraham of Alamosa, CO, Dave (Kathy) Ingraham of Minnetonka, MN; five grandchildren, Ben (Erin) Ingraham, Sara (Dan) Woodward, Josh Ingraham, Jenny (Dan) Ralles, Ashley Ingraham; and three great-grandchildren, Michael Ingraham, Isabelle Ingraham, and Evelyn Woodward. Preceded in death by her husband of 44 years Gar Ingraham; and sister Helen Matson. She will be remembered at a family memorial this summer at The Crested Butte Cemetery.

Memorial Gifts may be made to a charity of choice.
