“ Bobby was my Great Uncle, a man with a flirtatious nature and a permanent smile. Every family gathering was more fun when he came.

My Mom, Clara, is Bobby's oldest niece. She is just ten years younger than Bobby and always said he was like her older brother. I know Mom loved him a lot too.

“ I have memories of my Uncle Bobby from his cabin on Lake Osakis. We went to visit Bobby & Millie many times when I was growing up. Millie always gave me and my sisters money to go and buy treats at the resort store. He was always good natured. We liked to visit him. Rest In Peace Dear Uncle. Gwen (Hudalla) Skillings
