“ As the only grandmother on my mother's side I knew, Edna will absolutely be missed--she played such a role for me as a child.

I remember her infectious laugh, and her "get-up-and-go"...walking around town to do her errands, or for fresh air. I would tell others she was my "Spitfire Grandma."

I remember so much: her cards, her cute sayings, her cardinals, and the grief she gave me for growing taller than her!

I know she's in a good place upstairs with Grandpa!
