“ For over 60 years, my good buddy Ed has been more like a brother to me than my own brothers.
He's been a lifetime friend and hunting/fishing partner. Together we chased ducks, geese, pheasants and trout over many states and provinces, always very successfully. Planning these trips was always good fun too, as we always had to plan stops for his favorite restaurants, knowing which had the best bran muffins or malted waffles. We would always bring bushels of apples, which helped us convince the farmers to let us hunt their lands, and if that didn't work, Ed would just talk them into a yes, eventually!
As a lifetime friend, Ed and the memories we shared, will be with me forever, and I miss him so bad.
