“ I miss you, Papa. I hate that I'll never again sit down to a dinner and hear you call out 'hey everybody, look over here!' as you stand there with your camera. I miss your laughter and your ability to laugh at yourself. I miss the strong interest you took in so many things. The way you always looked so happy to see me. Miss you, and love you, Papa.

“ The grounds maint. shared a garage with transportation at Blake School. When I worked there Ed was my favorite bus driver. He was a kind, gentle man. My sympathies to his family.

“ I remember Ed being a bus driver at Blake School. He was always ready for a short visit, a good story, a suggestion or specific knowledge of how to repair something or just a kind word. We can be sad he is gone but we can also be happy and glad we knew him. He lived a full life and was a friend to many.
