“ New Ed from a long way back when I was with Connecticut Mutual. I thought he was a class act then and was happy to reconnect thru Facebook a couple years ago. Loved keeping up with him and family. He was still a class act and know he will be missed by family and friends.

“ My condolences to Teresa and all the family. Losing the ones we love is never easy, especially when it is sudden and unexpected. No wonder the Bible refers to death as an "enemy." It rushes into our lives and robs us of the ones we love. Be comforted in knowing that God promises that soon, death will be "brought to nothing", swallowed up forever. (1 Corinthians 15:26; Isaiah 25:8) He will wipe the tears from faces and heal hearts by restoring life to those we have lost. (John 5:28,29) In the meantime, may you lean on God for strength, remembering always that, "He cares for you." (1 Peter 5:7)

“ Teresa and family, please accept my deepest condolences for your loss. My memories of Ed always include a smile - playing doubles tennis against Roger and Chuck, riding along on his "professional visitor" sales calls, or simply spending time with him. As a young pup in the financial services industry, Ed taught me important lessons that I carry with me 30 years later. Thanks Ed, and God bless you.
