“ I remember with great fondness one of my best childhood pals, Ed Werbachowski Jr., who lived across the street from me on Marmora Avenue. We had great times together before you moved to MN and many awesome summers when you visited your grandparents. The world seems more sad today without you, Ed, and I regret that we lost touch over the years. Thank you for the privilege of being your friend. Rest in peace.

To Ed Sr. and Carol, I'm so sorry. No parent should ever have to bare the loss of a child. Know that your extended "family" in Chicago (and Honolulu) holds you close in prayer.

To Ed's daughters, Mya and Elaine, you'll undoubtedly have many unanswered questions about your dad as you grow up. Though I can't fill the void, I can certainly share the awesome memories I have. If you ever want to hear a story about your dad's childhood in Chicago, feel free to give me a call. ❤️

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. Words cannot describe the magnitude of your grief, and I cannot begin to imagine the loss in your hearts. I am beside myself, and wish I could be there with you to celebrate his life and the magnificent impact that Ed had on so many lives. He was always there to lend an ear, shoulder, or hand. He always had an encouraging word, and I will miss him dearly. I pray that you are wrapped in love and comfort during this most difficult time in your lives. Know that you are loved and thought of, and that you created the most amazing man for a son, friend, and father. I am honored to have known him, and to blessed have had the opportunity to be so close to him throughout the years.

“ Dear Eddy & Carol:

Joe and I are so very sorry to hear about Eddy Jr's plight. We were both shaken to the core to have learned of a young life being taken away due to such an unfortunate circumstance.

Please know that our hearts are with you and hope the comfort of both family and friends help to ease your pain.
