“ We lived near Edith and Rodger during my teenage years. Most holidays, and lot of other times, our families were together, eating, playing, or working on a project. It is sad to not have them with us to remember the good and hard times together, I hope one day I will be remembered as fondly. Edith loved her family, had a strong testimony of the gospel of Jesus Christ, she knew how to work and have fun. I’m also sure that she is having a wonderful reunion with all of her family that have gone before, for that reason I am happy for her and hope those who remain will continue to feel her love for them.

Mark Rose, son of Rolland, twin to Rodger, husband of Edith
