

Eileen B Siegel

July 1, 2016

Eileen Bass Siegel died on Friday, July 1, 2016 at age 81. Siegel was born and raised in Brooklyn, New York. She earned a degree in education, and held a wide variety of teaching positions throughout her career. She touched many Jewish youth in the Twin Cities in her role as teacher at Temple Israel Nursery School. Siegel had a number of interests including: linoleum block printmaking, theatre, folk music, reading and thoughtful discussion. Eileen and her husband Jerry founded the Keren Or Creative Arts Forum in honor of their daughter Karen Siegel-Jacobs, who preceded them in death. The forum recognizes the fine artistic work of Jewish teens. Eileen and Jerry, who preceded her in death, were married for 61 years. She is survived by her son Joshua, son David (Michelle), son-in-law Matthew Jacobs and four grandchildren; Jacob (Ruhi-Sofia) and Elana Siegel, and Allison and Zachary Jacobs, and dear friends. “ Though the ones we love are gone, they will live on in our hearts. Find comfort in the Bible where God says he will soon bring about a time on the earth when death will be no more shown at Revelation chapter twenty-one verses three and four and all those who have died will be brought back to life right here on the earth as written at Isaiah chapter twenty-six verse nineteen.
