“ Was saddened to hear of her passing...Elaine was our neighbor on Oakland Ave for over 40 yrs!
Elaine's kitchen was the gathering spot for us neighbor kids as she ALWAYS had warm baked bread in the oven, or freshly made cookies waiting for us & a welcoming smile & a listening ear!
It was because of Elaine, that in my 40's, I taught myself how to finally bake bread & taught myself the art of canning, lol- making my own bread & butter pickles & homemade cranberry jams! So MANY loving, fond memories of Elaine...she will be missed! 💕
