“ *Oh Auntie Eleanor how we will miss you. I am crying as I write this. The memories. When you came to see us in Utah, we had such a great visit. Leaves, yellow roses, hoses (ha ha). Staying with you in Richfield as a young kid. All the memories of growing up nextdoor to you and the family on Fish Lake. We so wish we could be there on Friday but we are not able to make it. We WILL be there in spirit. We had such a wonderful visit when I was home last fall. Also, lots of special phone calls and letters since then. Hoping you are dancing in Heaven! Sending lots of hugs!
