“ Ellie, I Remember the day I gave you the friendship rock like it as yesterday. If you will remember, I received this rock at my dad's death bed. I took one look at it and I knew it was meant for you as My Most Special Friend Forever! John S., Robbindsale, MN.

“ Anna,

I am so sorry to hear of your Grand Mothers passing. I did not know her, but if she was anything like you I am sure she was a kind and wonderful person with a huge heart and a sparkle in her eyes!

P.S. The Candle is for Maria! Tears . . .

“ Dear Carol, Bonnie, Jimmy, and David, I am so sorry for your loss. Your mother was a wonderful lady, she is the one that took the time to teach me to crochet, knit and many other crafts that I still love to do today. I will always remember her as a very proper and understanding person. She will be missed greatly.
