“ I have so many memories of my dear cousin, Ele. We have been like sisters since our families shared so many good (and some sad) times together. One of our best times was when we enjoyed at trip to Branson together in Nov, 1996. Two of Ele's sisters ( Arlene and LaDonna) joined us, along with the Sollies. We knew how to laugh and also to pray together. She was a prayer partner I could count on during some troublesome times. I miss her greatly! Meredith (and Jim, too)

“ The kindest person I have ever known and I was fortunate enough to call her my aunt. Thank you for the profound impact you had on my life and what an example you have been to many of us on what it means to follow Jesus. Love you forever.
