

Elizabeth Salsbury

June 3, 2002

Salsbury Elizabeth Marie, age 91, of NE Minneapolis, died on June 1, 2002, was born in Prairie Farm, Wisconsin. She was preceded in death by parents, Peter & Mary Miller; brothers, Edward, Clarence, and Herbert Miller; sisters, Mathilda Bilse and Erna Engle; and husband, Raymond, of sixty years. She is survived by son, Roger Salsbury & his wife Elaine, of Saint Anthony Village, Minnesota; daughter, Jean Frovik of Minneapolis; grandson, Mark Salsbury & his wife Sandy, of Atlanta, Georgia; grandson, Scott Salsbury of Mankato, Minnesota; granddaughter, Sara Massmann & her husband Johann, of Silver Creek, Minnesota; great-grandson, Andrew Salsbury of Atlanta, Georgia; sister, Minnie Bilse of Bay City, Michigan; sister, Helen Dinnies of Menomonie, Wisconsin; sister-in-law, Edna Miller of Boyceville, Wisconsin; many nieces, nephews, cousins, many very special friends, and Lydia. She was a graduate of Barron High School and River Falls State Teachers College. She was employed by Powers Department Store and member of the POWS. She was a long time member of Gustavus Adolphus Lutheran Church. Service Tuesday, June 4th, 11 am (reviewal 10 am), Gustavus Adolphus Lutheran Church, 27th and Lincoln St NE. Visitation at the Washburn-McReavy Northeast Chapel, 29th and Johnson St NE, Monday, June 3rd, 6-8 pm. Interment Sunset Cemetery. Memorials preferred to the church. Washburn-McReavy 612-781-6828