“ She was my neighbor growing up and she was also a talented seamstress I remember she fixed a long coat for me that i just loved and that made me really happy. she also had made a bunch of costumes that were in a trunk that her kids could pick from to wear for Halloween and I remember being so amazed at how cool they were and all of the detail she was a very nice and special lady she will be missed.

“ What I most remember about Grandma Bette was her brilliant smile and her joyful laughter. In my memory she did this a lot. Being a Californian, I loved her Minnesotan accent and the way she pronounced her Os. It endeared me to her. I remember the pride she took in her needlework which was always impressive. I remember her as kind, warm, and welcoming always with a story to share. What a long and memorable life...I find myself wondering if Grandpa Wille was impatient waiting for her to rejoin him. As Tom says now there's one more angel in Heaven and that's a beautiful thing to know.
