

Elizabeth L. Zwicky

July 10, 1925 - September 26, 2025

Elizabeth (Betty) L. Zwicky (nee: Lambie), age 100, passed away peacefully on September 26, 2025, surrounded by family. She lived independently until she was diagnosed with cancer one week before her death.

Betty was born in Oak Park, Illinois, on July 10, 1925, grew up in Elmhurst, Illinois. She fondly remembered long summer road trips from Elmhurst to northern Minnesota to camp in the Boundary Waters with her father and younger siblings. After high school she moved to St. Paul to attend St. Catherine's College, where she graduated with honors. She worked as a teacher and a lab technician after college. Betty married Robert Zwicky, and together they raised nine children in St. Paul and Fridley. After launching her kids into the world, Betty worked until retirement as a corporate research librarian at Ernst and Young. Betty loved reading, gardening, classical music, and completed numerous sewing and stitchery projects into her 90s. She especially loved following the adventures and successes of her children and grandchildren.

Preceded in death by her husband Robert and daughter Marcia. Survived by her sister Margaret, children, Steve, Tess, Mary, Paula, Chuck, Kate, Cindy, Libby (and their spouses), 20 grandchildren, and 19 great-grandchildren.

A celebration of Betty's life will be held on October 16th at Washburn-

McReavy Hillside from 4:00 - 6:00 pm with a prayer service to follow. A private burial will be held at a later date.
