“ Judy, Nancy, John and Sally: Just saw in the recent Gamble alumni newsletter that your Mom has passed away. We've thought of her often and the years ago of our days with your family in Illinois and Mpls. Very beautiful and gracious woman. It is hard to lose our loved ones, but what a legacy you have been left! Our condolences to all of you at this sad holiday time. Bob and Lillian Amundson, Mesa AZ

“ Dear Sundquist Family, Time has passed so quickly since I last saw your mother and father. They were special people. BJ said when her Mother passed away that we expected her to be with us forever. Your memories of your Mother must be very special also. Cousin Jon and BJ Anderson

“ Dear Judy, Sally, Nancy, and Jack, I know it is hard to lose your mom even though she was 97 and had to manage her nourishment through a tube feeding. Aunt Ellen was a gracious lovely woman. As Mom called her St. Ellen. We can't come for the funeral but your family will be a great comfort to each other. Your cousin, Cindy and Don Walker
