

Eloise (Phelan) Hager

January 24, 2018

Hager, Eloise (nee Phelan) Loving wife, mother and Grandmother was born 12/20/27 in Stambaugh, on the UP of Michigan. She married John Hager, also of Stambaugh in April of 1946. Their first child, Sandra (Eliason), was born in 1948 while John was still in school for mining engineering. After graduation, they moved to Gilbert, Minnesota and had three more children, Patty (Herbert) in 1950, John in 1954 and Bob in 1956. They lived there until John was transferred to Hibbing in 1965. In 1967, John was transferred again to Red Lake, Ontario, Canada. Three of her children, Patty, John and Bob remain in Canada. Eloise and John retired to Missouri in 1981, to be close to John's sister. John died in 1991, and Eloise remained in Missouri for 15 more years, baking bread, playing cards, walking her dog, and staying active in her church. In 2006, Eloise moved to Minneapolis, near to her daughter Sandra and family, and at that time she joined Nativity church. She is survived by her four children and their spouses, Barry Eliason, Darryl Herbert, Janet Hager, and Mary Hager, eight grandchildren and eight great grandchildren. She was also preceded in death by grandson Travis Herbert. Memorial service 1:30PM Friday (TODAY) with visitation starting one hour prior at Nativity Lutheran Church, 3312 Silver Lake Rd., St. Anthony Village. Private interment. Washburn-McReavy.com Northeast Chapel 612-781-6828