

Eowyn Anna Dyson

September 19, 1978 - November 14, 2015

Eowyn Anna (Honeywell) Dyson passed away suddenly in her sleep, at her home in Blaine, Minnesota, on the morning of November 14, 2015. She was anticipating the birth of her second child, a boy, Everett John, at the time of her death. Eowyn was born September 19, 1978 at a small farmhouse near Story City, Iowa to Robert L. and Therese M. (Walker) Honeywell. After several moves around eastern Iowa, the family settled in Lansing, Iowa, where Eowyn graduated from Kee High School in 1997. She attended Iowa State University where she earned a BS in Accounting, and also attended the Cordon Bleu Culinary Institute in Scottsdale, AZ. She moved to the Twin Cities and began a career as an IRS agent, where she met and later married Brett Russel Dyson. Eowyn and Brett were blessed with the birth of a daughter, Annabelle Marie in June of 2014. Eowyn was one of those enigmatic people who seem to be good at everything they do, and she was not afraid to get her hands dirty at anything from home improvement projects to culinary masterpieces. She took great pride in being a mother, and the love for her family simply lit up the room. She was a good friend to many, and she cared for her friends deeply. Eowyn is survived by her husband, Brett, and her beautiful daughter, Annabelle Marie; her father, Robert Honeywell of New Albin, IA; a sister, Nicole Walker; and a brother Joshua Honeywell. She was preceded in death by her mother, Therese M. (Walker) Honeywell, and her Sister, Promise Rose Honeywell. A visitation and memorial service will be held at Holcomb-Henry-Boom-Purcell Funeral Home, 515 Highway 96 West, Shoreview on Saturday, November 21, beginning at 11 AM, with the service at 3 PM. Memorials preferred to the family.

“ You left us way too soon my dear friend. We may not understand why you're gone, but we do not blame you. So unique in so many ways, from your name to the way you could get a cut from a banana peel and apron. That smile so radiant and genuine, your perfectly sleek jaw line and wildly thick blonde hair. But most of all, your unbelievably generous nature, effervescent personality and ability to make anyone see the positive in a bad situation. You were my rock and my wing-woman in culinary school, for if it were not for you, I would never have graduated. Whenever I have a cooking question from now on I will ask myself "what would Eowyn do?" Only I will sing your name, because that's what I did. And I know you will giggle and ask me "why do you sing my name!?" And I'll tell you like I did so many times "because it's funny". I will have a prickly pear margarita in your honor. I love you, I miss you, and I will see you again my friend.
