“ Eric Benson that I learned about his death is so shocking for me by today. I wondered myself to miss where he was at the local bank branch and asked the banker about him. He wrote me that he passed away unexpectedly. It is breaking my heart because he was a wonderful and a tender man that I ever had known. I really enjoyed his great benefit of banking discipline skills and support as well. He was so lucky to learn his challenge with the deaf bank customer for communicating by writing notes as I was. I do miss him unbelievably. Thanks for sharing a memory!
