“ BIG E, You will always be remembered and missed! Your name always comes up at work on how you handled things. Your name still appears on my desk or somewhere else throughout our company which it did today. I write because you bring a smile to my face with all the great memories at work and away from the work place. You will always be remembered and never forgotten. Smile my friend!

“ So many great memories of Eric, but the first time I met him was when the boyfriend brought me to his graduation party. He was so nice and welcoming, with friends like that the BF was a keeper. Blessed with a crew of awesome friends and having a hard time wrapping my head around that we won't get to see Eric again. My heart goes out to Mellisa, the kids and all who loved him.

“ One of my fondest memories of spending time with Eric was during the summer between our Sophomore and Junior years of high school. He called me and said, "What are you doing? Let's go do something."

He rode his bike from his home on 33rd and Colfax to mine on 29th and Russell. Not having a plan or destination we rode to Theodore Wirth Lake and in Forest Gump like fashion we decided, we'd come this far - might as well keep on going. We rode around Isles, Calhoun and Harriet then along Minehaha Creek to Lake Nokomis. Might as well see if Al is home. Then on toward Minehaha Falls, might as well see if Steve is home. Finally up along the Mississippi River through the U of M and Downtown back to North Minneapolis and home.

The day was really unremarkable but I think about it often because that's what it was like being friends with Eric to me: It didn't matter what we were doing, it was good enough just to be with him. I love you Eric and miss you terribly.

“ Our wedding was the happiest day of my life. I know people thought we wouldn't make it long because we only knew each other 6 months. But, when you know, you know, right? You gave me the 3 most precious things in my life besides you... Abby, Alex and Libby. I will love you From Here to Eternity.

“ Eric, Eric, Eric, I miss you so very much, my heart just aches. I know you you didn't want to leave us this soon but you are now free of pain and with mom & dad ~ this gives me some comfort. You will always be my Eric and will live on in my heart always. I love you. ~ Your big sister xxoo
