“ So many memories! I'll share as they pop into my head. I think it was Eric's 6th birthday that we took him to Chuckie Cheese to celebrate. They had a stage with a video backdrop and you could choose the music to play. His favorite song at the time was "Waterfalls" by TLC... Don't go chasing waterfalls, please stick to the rivers and lakes that you're used to... He danced the whole song through. It was the cutest thing ever.

“ I remember meeting him when he was a very young boy. He was so full of life and loved by all. May you always send reminders to your loved ones that you are still around them in spirit.

So sorry to hear about Eric. He and Jessica were my neighbors for awhile a few years back. I really liked Eric and thought he was a good dad. They would walk around the mobile home park with Mason when he was a baby. I remember having bon fires and hanging out. May he rest in peace in our Fathers arms.
