Erik enjoyed the togetherness of small groups and family gatherings and the sense of belonging and community they offered and he gave to them. Erik attended Edina High School and the University of Minnesota, where he was a member of Chi Psi Fraternity. He was an accomplished and hardworking salesman as noted by his employers, colleagues and many sales awards. Erik greatly enjoyed the achievement of 'making a sale' and couldn't wait to tell you about it. He embraced his Christian faith with profound joy and sincere gratitude. “ Erik was the best cousin. He was the first to look out for me I'm sure and keep me safe from the other boy cousins. He loved life and always had the best smile. His laugh was always heard. He loved hard. He has big shoes to fill. He always wanted to know how "you" were even when he was so sick. "How are you?" How do you answer that when your issues are minute compared to his cancer battle. He's going to be so, so missed. Definitely a hole at family events.
