“ Sorry to hear about Erika's death. We had heard that Hospice was called . I have a lot of memories of her that go back a long ways. She & I were classmates and friends at MWA. We all ended up in Minneapolis and were members of the old Auditorium Church. We even attended their wedding. When we got married in 1960 Ben was a BIG help to those who decided to have some fun at the house we had just bought. I don't know how much toilet paper they had to buy to string all those cob-web-like trails all over the house!! We laughed about that many times with them. There was a lot of Saturday night fun at our different homes plus the Sabbath dinners together. She was a great cook and an invite to their home was much-anticipated.

We did stop to visit them a few years back when we were in Minneapolis but a lot of time has passed since that visit. It was always good to spend time with them.

We send our sympathy to all of the family and we long for the day when Jesus comes so we can all be together again and distance will not separate us. May God's arms of love encircle each one of you at this sad time.
