

Esther Paulson

January 8, 2008

Paulson, Esther Wilhelmina age 87, of Minneapolis, died January 5, 2008. She was the sixth child born to immigrant parents, Fred and Minnie Paulson. She graduated from South High School in Minneapolis and Augsburg College. Esther devoted her life to the teaching of high school English, Latin, class plays and library management. She was a devoted member of Andrew Riverside Presbyterian Church, a fan of Star-Tribune crosswords, a writer of poetry, a loving aunt, and as inspiration to family, friends and neighbors. Preceding her in death were her parents; sisters, Ann and Edna Paulson, Minnie Johnson, Dorothy Klemenhagen; brothers, Robert and Fred Paulson; nephew, Richard Klemenhagen; great nephew, Terry Klemenhagen. She is survived by nieces, Carol Duff, Corrine Perrizo, Betty Folstad, Linda Borman; and nephews, Robert and James Klemenhagen, and Richard Paulson. Also surviving are great nieces and nephews, Peter Gross, Elizabeth Hilbourn, Amy Nasr, Angela Perrizo, Carrie Moultrie, Tracie, Kristin and Jamie Klemenhagen, Jessie Johnson, Richard Perrizo, Brian, Tom and David Klemenhagen, Chad and Noel Folstad, Rick Paulson, Leesha Borman; and many great-great nieces and nephews. She greatly appreciated devoted neighbors, Bill and Annette Heitkamp, and thanks the staff of North Memorial Hospital, Hospice and Home Care. Memorial Service, led by Rev. Harry Maghaklan, will be 1 PM Thursday, January 10th at the Washburn- McReavy Funeral Chapel, Crystal Lake Cemetery, 3816 Penn Avenue North, Minneapolis. Visitation will be 1 hour preceding and following the service.

Memorials are preferred to Andrew Riverside Presbyterian Church.
Washburn-McReavy Crystal Lake Chapel 612-521-3677