“ Esther introduced me into the fun world of scrabble, when Bernice Hansen and Helen Stechlein were looking for a fourth member. We spent many enjoyable afternoons sharing family news and taking turns hostessing. Esther was a gracious hostess and good friend. We miss her , but are grateful for the many good memories. “ My memories of Esther go back to when our families lived in the Southeast area of Minneapolis. Many happy memories of visits to their Wisconsin cabin and to our recreation trailer in Minnesota. Much later, after I lost Anna, Esther talked me into joining Senior Tennis which, I'm sure, has added years to my life. I think her favorite shot was the lob. They seemed to always land in bounds. At first, when I was a victim, I would try running them down but that was only partially successful and later, when I got into my eighties, I learned to just wave goodbye as the ball passed over my head. I hope we all meet gain.

“ Sending sympathies to Mark (aka Chip) and all Esther's family members! I did not meet Esther until just over a year ago, but was grateful to have made her acquaintance at that time. I genuinely enjoyed seeing her when going to visit my mom. Esther's eyes and smile sparkled, always. May she rest in peace.
